FINAL POLICY

School Health Services Rates

Policy Summary:

The Agency of Human Services (AHS) gives notice that rates paid for school health services will increase, effective December 17, 2015. Payment for school health services is at a case rate, based on costs for medically necessary individual services outlined in a student's Individualized Education Plan, and provided to Medicaid eligible special education students. The rate is increasing to reflect the increase in expenditures based on actual claims.

Effective Date:

December 17, 2015

Authority/Legal Basis:

1115 Global Commitment to Health waiver, available here.

Population Affected:

School health services providers; Medicaid eligible special education students.

Fiscal Impact:

The fiscal impact of these changes is an annualized increase in payments of approximately $9,691,650. No additional state funds are needed for this increase.
