

Authorization for Verification of Resources (for the Spouse not applying for Medicaid)

This form authorizes Medicaid to request records from financial institutions for the spouse of an individual applying for Medicaid.

This Authorization must be signed by the applicant's spouse if the applicant is:

- Age 65 or older, or
- Blind or disabled (of any age) and is applying for Medicaid as aged, blind or disabled (MABD), including Long-term Care (LTC) Medicaid.

The applicant's spouse needs to complete all sections and sign the authorization.

Eligibility for MABD (including LTC) depends on the amount of resources owned by the applicant and the applicant's spouse. This authorization allows Medicaid to check resources of the applicant's spouse at any financial institution. It does not give Medicaid permission to get personal health information from health-care providers. Failure to sign and submit this authorization may result in a denial or termination of Medicaid for the applicant.

For the Medicaid applicant: If your spouse refuses to sign this authorization or you cannot locate your spouse, you can still submit your Medicaid application.
