Dear Medicaid member:

Medicaid has rules about what medical services and items it will pay for. Are you under age 21? Your doctor or medical provider must ask before they treat you. Then Medicaid will tell them if it will pay.

Are you age 21 or older? Then you may ask Medicaid to pay for services or items not covered under the rules. You may ask Medicaid if it will pay before you get the services/items. If you don’t, Medicaid will not pay for it.

To ask Medicaid to pay for something not covered you need 2 papers:

1. The Beneficiary Request for Medicaid Coverage Exception. You must fill it out and sign it. AND
2. The Request for Medicaid Coverage Exception - Medical Need. Your doctor or medical provider must fill it out and sign it.

Both of these papers are with this letter. You should also send papers that show why you need the services/items. This can be:

- Medical records
- Letters from people you know saying why not getting the service/item will hurt you
- Other papers that show how the service/item meets the special Medicaid rules (Rule 7104)

We will look at your request as soon as we get both signed papers. We will make a decision within 30 days. Please send all information to:
